

Mt Lawn releases schedule for 2019

Mt Lawn Speedway located in New Castle has announced a five race schedule for the coming season. Mt Lawn's first race took place in June of 1935 and the track has been owned by the Sweigart family ever since.

Opening day will be Sunday May 5th with the first of three races scheduled at Mt Lawn for the Indiana/Ohio Thunder Car Shootout Series. The series will be a combination of Thunder Cars from Mt Lawn, Anderson Speedway in Anderson and Shadybowl Speedway in Degraff, Ohio. Joining the Thunder Cars will be Pro Compacts, a one hour Enduro for Factory Stock compacts and Street Drags.

Sunday May 19th the CRA Street Stocks will come to Mt Lawn for the running of the Bob Fields Memorial 200. The 200 lap event will be the first such event at Mt Lawn since 1995. A similar event was scheduled for 2018 but the event was rained out on two occasions. Joining the Street Stocks will be the Pro Compacts, Factory Stock Compacts and Street Drags.

Sunday May 26th the CRA Late Model Sportsman will headline the program for the 46th running of the Raintree 100. 2018 Raintree Champ Jeff Marcum of Morristown has indicated he will be back in '19 to attempt to capture his fourth Raintree title. Pro Compacts, Factory Stock Compact and Street Drags will also be on the program.

On June 30th the CRA Late Model Sportsman will return to compete in a 75 lap feature along with race #2 in the Indiana/Ohio Thunder Car Shootout, Factory Stock Compacts and Street Drags.

The final race currently scheduled for 2019 will be on July 28 and consist of a repeat of the opening day program with the Indiana/Ohio Thunder Car Series, Pro Compacts, an Enduro race with the Factory Stock Compacts and Street Drags. The length of the Enduro will be determined by the number of cars entered.

The annual Mt Lawn Car Show is scheduled for Labor Day Monday September 2.

The track will be open for practice each Sunday afternoon in April from 1:00 – 6:00. Additional practice times can be scheduled in advance by contacting Rick on his cell phone or by email. The phone number and email address are available on the Mt Lawn website.

Mt Lawn is located at 1494 S CR 400 W five miles west of New Castle. For additional information check mtlawn.com, Face Book, Twitter and Instagram.

